

March 6, 1974

Wm. Gustafson

Services for William O. Gustafson, 51, Claremont farmer, were Tuesday, March 5, at 2 p.m. at Augustana Lutheran Church, Claremont. The Rev. Charles Larson officiated, and burial was at West Memorial Gardens.

Gustafson died March 1 at Mary's Hospital in Rochester, music was provided by Rodney Larson, soloist, who sang "In The Garden," and the congregation sang "A Friend We Have In Jesus," accompanied by Mrs. Robert Stan-organist.

Bearers were Manley Green, George Hanson, Duane Nietert, Dale Larson, Art Rogers and Dale Stanley.

Gustafson was born January 1923, in South Dakota and was a lifetime resident of the Claremont area. He was married to Mrs. Vietmeier at Webster April 16, 1949. He was a member of Augustana Lutheran Church, the Elmer Lodge, the Claremont Sportsmen's Club, the ASCS committee, township board and had held various church offices.

Survivors include his widow; one daughter, Cleo Klein, Leavenworth, Kan.; two daughters, Mrs. David (Ruth) Nichols of Phoenix, Ariz.; Mrs. Jerry (Claudia) Sander-of Claremont; eight grandchildren; his mother, Mrs. Lydia Gustafson, North Hollywood, Calif.; two sisters, Miss Marion Gustafson of Los Angeles and Mrs. (Lois) Burgess of North Hollywood.

He was preceded in death by his father, one son and one sister.

Funeral - Garness Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.